

Pre-Authorized Bank Debit

Your Donations can be paid automatically from your checking or savings account each month and drafting from your bank account between 25th and 28th.

How does Pre-Authorized Debits Work?

Anytime between 25th and 28th of each month, instead of writing a check for Donation to ISA, an electronic debit is made to your checking or savings account.

You can be assured that your banking information is kept confidential and our banking institution is secure.

Concerned about occasional errors on your statement not corrected before debiting your account?

We will make any adjustments to reflect the corrected balance before deducting from your checking or savings account if notified in advance of debit.
